Thanks Erica for clarifying the schedule for us. I'll text Tom directly to acknowledge and avoid any paper trail.

All: Please take a look at the draft ppt, for content. It still needs to be converted into a dark background for contrast, maybe more photos but for now see if it makes sense to you. Also, any volunteers to talk about a specific slide or two to divvy up this presentation? I'm traveling on Friday so hopefully I'll have something to work with then based on your comments/edits/suggestions.

I'll send a group text out to everyone on Monday so we all know what's going on. Jennifer: I take it you'll already be in town then. So we're all on the same page, pick-up and drop-off during the site visit will be at Custom Hotel (8639 Lincoln Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90045).

Safe travels, everyone! Talk then if not before.

Vince
